

Elisabetta Giacomel, COVIP

Elisabetta Giacomel is Head of the Studies and International Affairs Division at COVIP (Commissione di Vigilanza sui Fondi Pensione), the Italian Supervisory Authority on pension funds.

She has been working at COVIP since 2001, with managerial responsibilities in the fields of financial and actuarial supervision, international activities and economic and financial research.

She represents COVIP in EIOPA (before CEIOPS) steering committees and working groups covering pension topics. In particular, she participated in the activities for the technical advice of the IORP Directive reviews and PEPP regulation and in the activities related to the IORP stress tests exercises.

She is also responsible for maintaining contacts and relations with other national supervisory authorities. She contributes to the development of national regulations and policies for complementary pensions as well as the implementation of international and European standards at domestic level.

She represents COVIP in OECD-INFE for retirement education topics; she was a member of the Italian Edufin Committee from 2017 to 2023.

Prior to joining COVIP, she worked as an economist in several asset management companies from 1996 to 2001 where she gained experience in financial and macroeconomic analysis.

Elisabetta Giacomel holds a graduate degree in Applied Economics at “Cattolica del Sacro Cuore” University (Milan) and a Master in Economics at “Luigi Bocconi” University (Milan).
