

Daniela Morgante

Daniela Morgante, 1973, is a Judge with the Italian Court of Accounts, Chair of the International Board of Auditors for NATO, Member of the Italian Alternative Dispute Resolution Arbitrator Court for Financial Litigations, Judge of the Tax Court for the Province of Florence, Judge at the National Appeal Sport Rules Court of the Italian Football Federation. She started her career as analyst and attorney at CONSOB (Italian supervisory authority for financial markets), then joined the Banking Supervisory Regulation and Competition Department of the Bank of Italy, which she left after having been appointed Acting Ordinary Judge and then Administrative Judge. She was also Member and Chair of the College of Auditors of the European Union Institute for Security Studies, Counselor of the Italian Ministry for European Affairs, Deputy for Finance for the Capital City of Rome, Chair of the College of Auditors of FORMAP Foundation (Universities of Rome La Sapienza, of Naples Federico II and others), Member of the College of Auditors of the Governing Council of the Tax Courts, Member of the College of Auditors of the Association of the Judges of the Court of Accounts, Member of the Board for Management's Performance of the University Hospital of Rome Umberto I. Her extensive lectures and publications cover legal topics concerning the areas of financial markets, banking, pensions, investors' protection, audit, accountability and governance for the public sector and companies owned by public institutions.