<sup>1</sup> For identification purposes, the most recent annual accounts provided by financial groups have been considered when making determinations as to their status as financial conglomerates. The list reflects information received by the Joint Committee of the European Supervisory Authorities up to 30 October 2023.

<sup>2</sup> Where Articles 6 to 17 of Directive 2002/87/EC (FICOD) are applied at the level of a group which is part of another group where Articles 6 to 17 of Directive 2002/87/EC (FICOD) are also applied, the (sub) financial conglomerate has been included in the list. A reference is made to which financial conglomerate the sub-group is part of. When in accordance with the national transposition of the last paragraph of Article 5 (2) of Directive 2002/87/EC, Articles 6 to 17 of Directive 2002/87/EC (FICOD) only apply at group level, the sub-group has not been included in the list.

<sup>3</sup> The list includes groups for which a waiver, either in full or in part according to Article 3 or 3a of Directive 2002/87/EC applies. Where Article 3.3 or Article 3.3a, resp. of Directive 2002/87/EC applies, the relevant competent authorities have decided by common agreement not to regard the group as a financial conglomerate or, instead, the group in question has been identified as a financial conglomerate, but the coordinator and, where appropriate, the relevant competent authorities have decided that the group should not be subject to all requirements of supplementary supervision as required under Directive 2002/87/EC.
