

Didier MILLEROT

Born 1968

Belgian and French nationalities.

Didier is a lawyer with a Private law degree from the University of Lille and a post-graduate in EU law from the Université Libre de Bruxelles.

Didier started his career in the Commission in 1994, dealing with international relations in the social field. He moved to DG MARKT end of 1997 where he occupied different positions.

Didier became Head of the Financial Reporting and Accounting Unit in July 2012 in DG FISMA. He then moved to the Banking and Financial Conglomerates Unit in 2015 a time during which the Investment Firms review and the Covered Bonds initiative were adopted. Didier then became the Head of the Insurance and Pensions Unit in April 2019, in charge of the Solvency II review inter alia.