

Mag. Katharina Muther-Pradler

1998	After her degree in law, Mrs Katharina Muther-Pradler started her career in 1998 at Ernst & Young Austria as audit assistant.
2000-2007	In 2000 she joined the national Security Supervision, which merged 2002 to the Financial Market Authority. There she was responsible as audit manager for onsite inspections at credit institutions in respect of the Investment Service Directive and also for the international and national negotiations of the Market in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) at the European Commission (assisting the Ministry of finance), at ESMA level (former CESR) and with the Austrian Ministry of Finance.
2007-2014	2007 she was appointed as head of the rules of conduct and compliance division, which is responsible for onsite inspections at credit institutions in the MiFID area and also for the compliance supervision of insurance companies, issuers and pension funds.
2014-	In July 2014 she was appointed as Managing Director of the Integrated Supervision department, which brings together under one departmental umbrella the national and international developments in the area of supervision and legislative affairs, as well as the integrated supervision of the financial market with regard to rules of conduct, compliance, unauthorized business, and prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing.

Vienna, January 2015