

CURRICULUM VITAE OF SEÁNA CUNNINGHAM

Seána Cunningham is the Director of Insurance at the Central Bank of Ireland (the Central Bank).

Seána qualified as a solicitor in 1998 and practised in Ireland and England, specialising in commercial litigation and insolvency. She joined the Enforcement and AML Directorate of the Central Bank in 2011 and held a number of different roles in the Enforcement and AML divisions. She became the Director of Enforcement and AML in January 2018 and represented the Central Bank on the European Banking Authority's Anti-Money Laundering Steering Committee and on Ireland's Advisory Council on Economic Crime and Corruption.

Seána took up the role of Director of Insurance in the Central Bank in January 2025.