Desislav Danov

Desislav Danov started working in the insurance industry back in 1998 when he first joined the "State insurance institute - DZI". This shaped his professional CV and became decisive factor for his later career. He moved further on as freelance insurance agent, senior underwriter in "Armeec" JSC, head of external projects for the insurance broker "ZBK Balkan" and lot more. He also gained experience as trainee in insurance software provider. In 2009 he joined the Insurance Supervision Department of the Financial Supervision Commission of Bulgaria where he remained till 2012. Since 2013 Desislav became active in multiple civic initiatives aimed at protection of financial services users. In 2015 he authored the "Insurance supervision - an attempt for unbiased overview" - first Bulgarian study of insurance supervision. In 2018 he published his "Pocket guide to Insurtech". In 2017 Desislav started #InsurtechBalkans series of events with first edition InsurtechSofia and 2019 edition InsurtechSkopje. Since end of 2018 he co-founded, together with enthusiasts from Romania, Bulgaria and North Macedonia, the Fintechguardian - first EU based NGO, dedicated to Fintech consumers protection, where he was appointed as managing director.
