

Ute Meyenberg is currently the National Secretary of CFDT Cadres, France's first trade union in the private sector and the Vice-President of Eurocadres, one of the three recognised European cross-sectoral social partners. For the last five years, she has been working actively with the European Association of Paritarian Institutions (AEIP), which is a Brussels-based advocacy organization, representing social protection institutions as occupational pension funds, healthcare insurance and provident institutions, managed on equal basis by employer and trade union organizations.

Ms Meyenberg is member of the Committee of Sanctions of the French Financial Markets Supervisor (Autorité des marchés financiers, AMF) and the Committee for Sustainability Reporting of the French accounting norms standard setter (Autorité des normes comptables - ANC) where she contributed recently to the comments on the EFRAG accounting norms.

Between 2011 and 2016 she was member of the Banking Stakeholder Group of the European Banking Authority - EBA and worked as a compliance officer at Credit Agricole - CIB, the investment bank of Crédit Agricole group. She has an experience of over 25 years in the investment banking sector in various departments such as loan syndications, project finance, credit analysis and as client relationship officer in France and Germany.

Ute holds a degree in management studies from the French Business School - HEC (Hautes études commerciales, 1988) and is a Psychologist of Work since 2010.