

Lucia Stefunkova

She graduated from the Comenius University in Bratislava, Faculty of Mathematics and Physics in 1993. After graduation she started working as an actuary for Union (insurance undertaking) and since 1995 she switched to Universal Banking insurance undertaking where she also started as an actuary and later was promoted and held position of Non-Life Department Director. Since 2004, Mrs Lucia Stefunkova started her career at the Financial Market Authority and when the FMA merged together with the National Bank of Slovakia (central bank) she was promoted as a Head of Insurance Regulation Section where she currently covers all regulatory and policy issues applicable to insurance sector and intermediation.