

EIOPA Occupational Pensions Stakeholder Group

Flavia Micilotta

Flavia is Director at the Luxembourg Green Exchange (LGX): the key stock exchange for listing of green bonds. LGX is a member of the Federation of European Securities Exchanges (FESE), the Sustainable Stock Exchange initiative, and the technical expert group on sustainable finance (TEG) of the European Commission.

A member of EFRAG's EU reporting Lab and of the EIOPA Occupational Pension Stakeholder Group, Flavia has supported the work of the European Commission to devise a sustainable finance framework as member of the High-Level Expert Group on Sustainable Finance (HLEG). With 18 years of experience in sustainability, Flavia was previously Executive Director of Eurosif, the pan-European sustainable and responsible investment (SRI) membership organisation whose mission is to promote sustainability through European financial markets. As a sustainability consultant and qualified environmental auditor at EY and Deloitte, she assisted companies embed sustainability in their business models and go beyond the remits of social and environmental compliance. Focused on issues ranging from climate change and adaptation, to supply chain management and responsible investments, Flavia worked with several European banks and asset managers to help them streamline their Responsible Investment approach. A founding member of the UN Global Compact in Belgium, Flavia has developed much of her career working with companies to improve their transparency and accountability through material and forward-looking sustainability reporting.
