

Martina Verić joined Hanfa in 2021, serving as Head of the Funds and Investment Firms Supervision Division from 2022, before her appointment to the Management Board in 2025. At Hanfa, she has been responsible for a broad range of supervisory and regulatory areas, including pension and investment funds, investment services and activities, and crypto-asset service provision, and has led or contributed to numerous legislative and regulatory projects. She chairs Hanfa's internal Risk Committee and coordinates its business intelligence activities, and represents the Agency in committees and working bodies of the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) and the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA), as well as in the OECD Working Party on Insurance and Pensions and the Croatian Financial Stability Council.

Prior to joining Hanfa, she spent more than 13 years in the asset management industry in risk management and compliance roles. She holds a degree in Financial and Business Mathematics from the Faculty of Science, University of Zagreb, and a Certificate in Quantitative Finance (CQF).