

April 2021

Tomas Paulauskas

Tomas Paulauskas is the Head of Lithuanian Insurance Policy Holder's Association. Association is a non-profit, non-governmental organization that represents the interests of the insurance policyholders in Lithuania. During past few years Association successfully implemented projects funded by Lithuanian government and by the Association itself. Association is a member of the Alliance of Lithuanian Consumer Organisations.

Currently Tomas is also working in Walless as Senior Associate. Tomas started his carrier in 2010 with Lithuanian railways and held various positions as Lawyer and Senior lawyer. In 2015 he joined state owned Lithuanian energy company Ignitis where he worked as Lawyer and later as Manager of strategic importance projects with projects of national importance. In 2017 he joined EY as Senior lawyer, in 2019 Fondia.

Tomas holds a master's degree in law from Mykolas Romeris University, Lithuania.