

Anne Schaedle

Anne Schaedle is Head of Unit for Policy definition and coordination in the European Commission's Directorate-General for financial stability, financial services and capital markets union (DG FISMA).

Anne joined the European Commission in 2008. From 2008-2014 she worked in the Directorate-General for Competition in the area of mergers. In 2015 she joined DG FISMA working first on the crisis management framework and bank resolution files. From 2016 -2019 she worked as policy assistant to the Director General, in February 2020 she became Deputy Head of Unit of the Asset Management unit.

Anne started her professional career in the private sector as lawyer in commercial law firms in Munich and Brussels.

Anne holds law degree and a PhD in law from University of Augsburg (Germany) and a Public Policy Master degree (MSc) from London School of Economics, UK.