

Alessia Angelilli, IVASS

Alessia Angelilli is the Head of the International Cooperation Division at IVASS (Italian Insurance supervisory Authority). She is responsible for IVASS' international regulatory and policy tasks in insurance, contributing to form the policy of IVASS' in the area of prudential regulation for insurers, as well as contributing to the implementation of international and European standards at national level. She is also responsible for coordinating IVASS representation, by maintaining contacts and relations with the national Institutions and Authorities. She represents IVASS towards EU institutions, the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS) and EIOPA.

She was seconded at the European Commission from 2010 to 2013 and contributed to the design and implementation of Solvency II. She took part in the negotiations of Omnibus II both in the Council and in the European Parliament. She also focussed on financial conglomerates and recovery and resolutions policy issues.

Having started as a policy officer in IVASS, she was involved in the development of the Solvency II project since its beginning and was a member of several working groups on CEIOPS/EIOPA and IAIS, dealing with accounting and financial stability issues. At national level, she focused as well on the national implementation of IAS/IFRS and with the quantitative impact studies of Solvency II requirements as well as on the implementation of Solvency II.

Prior to joining IVASS in 2006, she worked in the field of banking and insurance in Italy, where she gained experience in the product design and analysis and in the ALM.

Alessia holds a Master Degree in Economics and Finance at La Sapienza, University of Rome.