

Accountability and transparency

One of EIOPA's strategic goals is to act as a modern, competent and professional organisation, with effective governance arrangements, efficient processes and a positive reputation. The following key guiding principles have been developed in order to support the Authority in achieving this goal.

- Good administrative behaviour
 - Independence
 - Public access to documents
-

