Consumers in financial services: how to enhance their financial education?
Joint ESAs high-level conference on financial education and literacy 2022
1 & 2 February 2022

The banner features the logos of the European Banking Authority (EBA), the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA), and the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA). To the right, there are several white line-art icons on a dark background: a lightbulb inside a head profile, a group of three people, a hand holding a Euro symbol, a computer monitor with a checkmark, and a Euro symbol with a plus sign.

This joint ESAs conference will bring together high-level government representatives as well as experts from public authorities, academia, NGOs, consumer associations and the industry, to exchange ideas and experiences, stimulate the discussion and raise awareness on financial education and literacy.

The discussion is organised around the following four topics:

- financial education and Capital Markets Union;
- digitalisation with a specific focus on cybersecurity, scams and fraud;
- financial resilience of vulnerable groups; and
- sustainable finance.

Due to the limitations of the online platform, the number of participants may be limited and spontaneous registrations will be assessed and confirmed on a first-come first-served basis.

The registrations to the event are now closed.
