

Rulebook Articles

Reference to complete pre-contractual and contractual information

PATH:
Articles

The insurance product information document shall state prominently that complete pre-contractual and contractual information about the non-life insurance product is provided to the customer in other documents. That statement shall be placed immediately below the name of the manufacturer of the non-life insurance product.