

Vladimir Savov

Deputy Chair in charge of the Insurance Supervision Division in the Financial Supervision Commission

On July 23, 2020, Vladimir Savov was elected by the National Assembly of the Republic of Bulgaria as a Deputy Chair of the FSC, heading the Insurance Supervision Division, for a 6-year term.

He was born on August 24, 1971 in the city of Varna. He holds a Master's degree in International Economic Relations from the University of National and World Economy, followed by a Master in Business Administration from the London Business School.

In the period 1993-1998 he worked at UniCredit Bulbank as a Correspondent Relations with Foreign Countries Manager. In 1999, Vladimir Savov interns in the Central and Eastern Europe and Global Depository Receipts Departments at The Bank of New York, London, where he gained international experience in the banking sector. From 2000 to 2003, Vladimir Savov worked as a senior analyst at Brunswick UBS, and from 2003 to 2006 he was Deputy Director and subsequently Director at Uralsib Capital Bank, where he was responsible for the analysis of banking and consumer sector. In the period 2006-2009 he was Director of the Analysis Department at the investment bank Credit Suisse, and from 2009 to 2013 he was Managing Director, Head of the Analytical Department at Otkritie Financial Corporation.

On January 24, 2014, Vladimir Savov was elected by the National Assembly of the Republic of Bulgaria for a 6-year term as a Member of the FSC board, supporting the policy of analysis and risk assessment of financial markets, improving supervisory practices and protecting the interests of investors, insured and the socially insured persons. During this period, he consecutively performed the duties of Deputy Chair in charge of the Investment Supervision Department and the duties of Deputy Chair in charge of the Insurance Supervision Department. During his work in the FSC, Mr. Savov focused his efforts on consistency of processes, responsibility and efficiency to achieve sustainable results over time, based on transparency and legality

During the period February-July 2020, Mr. Vladimir Savov has held the position of Director of the Regulatory Policy and Strategy Department of the Astana Financial Services Authority, the regulator of the Astana International Financial Center in Kazakhstan. During his work there he introduced good practices and models of regulation and supervision, procedures for reviewing signals and complaints, optimised the prudential requirements for investment intermediaries.

He speaks English and Russian.