

Director, Insurance Supervision

Petra is Director of Insurance Supervision the Netherlands Bank. Her department is responsible for the prudential supervision of the Dutch insurance market.

Petra joined the Netherlands Bank in February 2007 working in the supervisory policy division. In 2013 she became Head of Insurance Policy and in 2015 she was appointed Head of the DNB Expert Center for Fit and Proper testing. The last three years Petra was Director Payments and Market Infrastructures. Prior to joining The Netherlands Bank, Petra had an international career in the oil and gas industry.

Petra is a member of the Supervisory Board of Geldersch Landschap and Kasteelen. She has a European master's in law and economics and a master's in Russian studies. Petra is married and proud mother of three children.