

Date: July 2020

Tony O'Riordan

Tony O'Riordan is a director and consultant in the insurance industry. He was most recently CFO and a Director of New Ireland Assurance, a leading life assurance and pensions company in Ireland and a subsidiary of Bank of Ireland. Tony qualified as an actuary in 1990, and completed an MBA at University College Dublin in 1996. He previously worked as leader of the actuarial consulting practice in Ireland for PwC and was a member of the PwC European actuarial leadership team. In that role, he was responsible for leading actuarial assurance and providing advice for life assurance, banking and asset management companies in a number of countries.

Tony's past employment includes executive roles at Tillinghast, Scottish Provident and Aviva and independent non-executive director roles with HSBC, New Ireland Assurance and St James's Place.

Tony is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries in Ireland and of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries (UK). He is Chairperson of the Insurance Committee of the Actuarial Association of Europe (AAE).