in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person
Or
Data subject has given his/her unambiguous, free, specific and informed consent

Data Subject’s Rights

Information on how to exercise data subject’s rights

Data subjects may exercise their data privacy rights provided in Articles 17 to 24 of the Regulation (EU) 1725/2018.

Data subjects have the right to:

- access their personal data, receive a copy of them in a structured and machine-readable format or have them directly transmitted to another controller, as well as request their rectification or update in case they are not accurate.
- request the erasure of their personal data, as well as object to or obtain the restriction of their processing.
- withdraw their consent to the processing of their personal data at any time in case such processing is based solely on their consent.

For the protection of the data subjects’ privacy and security, every reasonable step shall be taken to ensure that their identity is verified before granting access, or rectification, or deletion.

Should data subjects wish to access/rectify/delete their personal data, or receive a copy of them/have it transmitted to another controller, or object to/restrict their processing, please contact [ethicsofficer@eiopa.europa.eu] or [DPO@eiopa.europa.eu].

Complaint:
Any complaint concerning the processing of the data subjects’ personal data can be addressed to EIOPA’s Data Protection Officer (DPO@eiopa.europa.eu). Alternatively, data subjects can also have at any time recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor (www.edps.europa.eu).

Restrictions (Note 8):
Without prejudice to the above, rights might be restricted in accordance with EIOPA’s decision on the restriction of data subject’s rights (EIOPA-MB-19-056).
