TRAVELLING TO EIOPA

From Frankfurt International Airport

By public transport

At the airport, take the S8 or S9 trains towards direction 'Hanau' to go to Frankfurt Central Station ('Hauptbahnhof', 3rd stop).

The journey takes approximately 11 minutes and costs 5.80 EUR for a single ticket and 11.30 EUR for a return ticket (day ticket).

Create your itinerary and buy tickets in advance on the Frankfurt public transport website: <http://www.rmv.de/en/>.

By taxi / Uber

Taxis are available at every exit of the airport and will cost 25-30 EUR to Westhafen Tower.

The journey takes 15-20 minutes in light traffic. During rush hour and heavy traffic, the ride may take up to 40 minutes.

The rates for using an Uber ride are usually similar to taxi fares.

From Frankfurt Central Station

Walking

Frankfurt Central Station ('Hauptbahnhof') is only an 11-minute walk to EIOPA.

SAFETY & SECURITY

In case of an emergency on your floor

- You will hear a very loud evacuation announcement.
- You are obliged to leave the building immediately, using the stairs.
- Persons with reduced mobility will be directed to the logistics elevators for evacuation by the fire brigade.
- Upon exiting the building, directly go to the assembly point indicated below.

In case of an emergency on another floor / false alarm:

- There will be no loud evacuation announcement, but windows start beeping and close, elevators may not function.
- Announcements may be heard in the staircases or on other floors.
- In such situation there is no need to evacuate unless announced otherwise.

First aid kits are available at the EIOPA reception and in the staff lounges on each floor.

Smoking is not allowed at EIOPA and inside of the building.

We are looking forward to welcoming you at EIOPA.

To facilitate your visit to our premises, EIOPA needs to collect and process certain personal data.
