

EIOPA INITIATIVES ON PRUDENTIAL TREATMENT OF NAT CAT RISKS AND ON DEMAND SIDE ASPECTS AIMED AT CLOSING THE NAT CAT PROTECTION GAP

DATE: 22 MAY 2024

TIME: 10:00 - 12:00

VENUE: ONLINE (WEBEX DETAILS WILL BE PROVIDED UPON REGISTRATION)

AGENDA

TIME	SUBJECT	PRESENTER
10:00 – 10:10	Introductory remarks	Valérie Mariatte-Wood, Head of Consumer Protection Department, EIOPA Jerome Bourtembourg Leader of EIOPA's sustainable finance Project Group, National Bank of Belgium
10:10 – 10:25	 Presentation on Nat Cat reassessment of the standard formula – consultation paper 	Marie Scholer, Senior Expert on Policy, Policy and Supervisory Convergence Department, EIOPA

10:25 – 10:40	► Q&A	The floor will be opened for questions.
10:40 – 11:00	Zoom in on specific aspects for the flood assessment for the Nordic countries	Marie Scholer, Senior Expert on Policy, Policy and Supervisory Convergence Department, EIOPA Toni Blomster, Chief Actuary, Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority Jane Toothill, Managing Director JBA Risk management
11:00 – 11:15	 Presentation of the EIOPA Staff Paper on demand-side aspects of the Nat Cat protection gap EIOPA will provide a background on its work in relation to Nat Cat protection gap and introduce the main elements that have been revised in the Staff paper following stakeholders' consultation 	Nadia Marin Consumer Protection Expert, EIOPA Mirjam Yakop Seconded National Expert on Consumer Protection, EIOPA
11:15 – 11:30	Q&As Open discussion.	The floor will be opened for questions.

11:30 – 11:55	Zoom in on specific aspects for the Nat Cat protection gaps	Marco Traversa, Team Leader of the Conduct of Business Oversight Team, Consumer Protection Department, EIOPA loannis Chatzivasiloglou Bank of Greece Julian Müller Sustainable Finance Officer, BEUC
11:55 – 12:00	Closing remarks	Patrick Hoedjes, Head of Policy and Supervisory Convergence Department, EIOPA